CO-OPERATION IRELAND - PEACE PHASES

Early 1980s and 1990s

Violent Extremism

Engage, Challenge, Confront

PEACEMAKING PHASE

Efforts to achieve an acceptable and durable political settlement

Dialogue and Negotiation

Downing Street Declaration 15 Dec 1993

Ceasefires 1994

Talks NI Political Parties British /Irish/US

Good Friday Agreement10 April 1998 aka Belfast Agreement

Referendums N and S May 1998

Agreement across 3 strands

1.NI internal arrangement 2.North –South Arrangements 3.East-West arrangements

Elections to Assembly June 1998

Suspension - Re-establishment May 2000

Suspension Oct 2002

IRA statement end to its campaign July 2005

St Andrews Agreement Oct 2007

SF Support for Policing Jan 2007

Restored devolved institutions May 2007

Justice Minster appointed April 2010
Human Rights Legislation

PEACEMAKING PHASE

PEACEBUILDING PHASE

Late 1990 onwards

Rebuilding communities post-conflict

Peacewalls/Walls of Division
Planning and contested spaces

Addressing the issue of relationships between people

Residential and educational Segregation

Enduring Mistrust

Racism

Separation - Divided society

Sectarianism

A decade of significant anniversaries

Institution building

PEACEBUILDING PHASE

PEACE SHARING PHASE

Sharing the Learning:

Good and Bad Role of the State Role of the Media Role of the Church Etc.

PEACE SHARING PHASE

Segregation

Late 1960s

and 1970s

PEACEKEEPING

PHASE

Concentration on stopping the Community

violence

Individual

PEACEKEEPING

PHASE

Society